

RAW ENERGY DANCE EDUCATION

Dance Instructors

Part-time | Casual | Sydney

Do you love sharing your passion for dance with little people?

We're looking for enthusiastic, energetic and creative instructors to join our team at Raw Energy Dance Education (REDED)!

About Us

Founded in 1999 and now part of the Australian School of Performing Arts, REDed inspires thousands of children every year through fun, engaging school-based dance programs. As home of the Australian Girls Choir and REDed, we're proud to be Australia's leading performing arts organisation for young people.

The Role

We're seeking casual dance instructors for Term 4 2025 and for 2026 to teach curriculum-aligned and extra-curricular dance programs in primary schools. Contracts are short-term, during school hours.

Key Term 4 2025 locations:

- Bondi
- St Ives

More contracts will be available across Sydney in 2026.

What We're looking for

Successful REDed applicants will have:

- Passion for performing arts and education
- Experience (a little or a lot) in music, dance and/or performing arts education
It's desirable but not necessary to have specific dance teacher experience. You might be an aerobics teacher or gymnast, or a trained dancer with an interest in teaching.
- Experience leading groups of children (5–11 years)
- Well-developed communication and interpersonal skills
- A valid Working with Children's Check (required)
- Qualifications in education or the arts are a bonus but not essential.

Why Join Us?

- Flexible contracts to fit around study or other work
- Be part of a supportive, creative team
- Make a real impact on kids' confidence and wellbeing
- Teach what you love every day

How to Apply

Submit a one-page cover letter and your resume in a single document, addressed to our People and Culture Manager, Hayley Hawksford.
